Shenandoah Community Foundation Awards $43,408 to Area Non-Profits

Woodstock, VA – The Shenandoah Community Foundation has awarded grants to 14 local non-profit organizations who participated in the Foundation’s 2012/13 grants cycle. These grants, ranging from $900 to $10,000, were made possible by a generous gift to the Foundation from Woodstock Anonymous.

“We are honored to be able to support the good work of our local non-profit organizations. And we are grateful for the donation from Woodstock Anonymous which enables us to fund this program,” said Foundation President, Jeff Dalke.

“Local non-profits really need support. We received requests totaling over $150, 000,” said program coordinator, Jeanne Russell.

“This year the grants committee supported all sorts of programs but focused primarily on Family, Child, and Social Welfare priorities,” according to Dalke.

The following organizations received grants:

A Small Hand
Mt. Olive and Shiloh United Methodist Church Enrich Program
Help with Housing
Humane Society, Shenandoah County
Jobs and Services Daily
Response
Shenandoah Alliance for Shelter
Shenandoah County Soccer League
Shenandoah Valley Lutheran Ministries Luke’s Backpack Program
Skyline Community Action partnership
Smart Beginnings, Shenandoah County
Theatre Shenandoah
VECCA
Wayside Theater
