The members of this Committee are the Foundation's President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary, all of whom are Directors of the Foundation. The Committee performs the administrative function of the Foundation and implements Board direction. Among other things, the Executive Committee is authorized to function in place of the Board of Directors between meetings. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11: An initial draft of this Form 990 was prepared by the Foundation's President. That draft was reviewed by the Foundation's Executive Committee. The final draft of this Form 990 was mailed to all Directors of the Foundation and was reviewed at the Board of Directors meeting held on May 8, 2013. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12: The Foundation monitors and enforces compliance with its Conflict of Interest Policy as follows. Directors and officers are asked to sign conflict of interest forms, and are expected to provide updated disclosures annually or more frequently as appropriate. Moreover, the family and business connections of the Directors and officers are generally known in the Foundation's small, rural community. At present, the Foundation has a limited number of vendor relationships and its grants are generally awarded directly to non-profit organizations (or governmental entities) or to a diverse group of scholarship recipients. Directors are expected to recuse themselves from Board decisions that present a personal conflict of interest.
