Helene Albright Scholarship Eligibility

The Helene Albright Scholarship provides an award to a graduating senior of Latino heritage from one of the Shenandoah County, Virginia, public high schools.

For purposes of the scholarship, Latino heritage may be defined as having at least one parent recognized as Latino, and Spanish is the native language of that parent's heritage.

The amount of the scholarship awarded in 2025 is $3,200. If interested in this scholarship, please return the completed application to your high school guidance counselor by March 16, 2025. You may also email your application to info.scfva@gmail.com or mail to Shenandoah Community Foundation, PO Box 350, Strasburg, Virginia 22657.

The Shenandoah Community Foundation manages the scholarship fund. Additional information about the scholarship can be obtained from the Foundation's website at www.shenandoahcommunityfoundation.org or by calling 540-465-1444.
