ANNUAL REPORT

TO OUR COMMUNITY,

As we reflect on the past year, we are deeply grateful for the steadfast generosity and commitment of our community. Your support remains the foundation of our mission, enabling us to create lasting impact and foster opportunities that strengthen the fabric of our region. Every gift, every partnership, and every shared vision affirms the power of working together for the common good of those that live, work, and visit Shenandoah County.

This annual report offers a glimpse into the ways your contributions have shaped our work and advanced our goals. Within these pages, you will find stories that honor those whose foresight ensures future generations will benefit from their enduring gifts, explore how targeted philanthropy through field-of-interest funds addresses evolving needs, and highlight the Foundation's role as a convener, bringing people and organizations together to collaborate, innovate, and amplify impact.

Thank you for believing in the transformative power of community and for walking alongside us on this journey. Together, we are not only responding to today's needs but also shaping tomorrow's possibilities.

FOCUSED GIVING WITH LASTING IMPACT

At the heart of philanthropy is the desire to make a difference in the areas that matter most to you. At the community foundation, field-of-interest funds offer donors a unique way to combine that desire with flexibility and impact.

WHAT IS A FIELD-OF-INTEREST FUND?

A field-of-interest fund allows donors to support a topic or area. You choose the field you care about, such as education, the arts, or the environment, and the foundation ensures your gift is directed to the most pressing needs and promising opportunities within that area. This approach provides adaptability as community needs evolve, while still honoring your philanthropic priorities.

Currently, the Shenandoah Community Foundation is proud to steward five field-of-interest funds, each addressing vital aspects of community life.

- Endowment for Environmental Conservation – Protecting and preserving natural resources for future generations.
- John and Susan Hunsaker Children’s Support Fund – Supporting the needs of elementary and middle school students in Shenandoah County.
- Career and Technical Education Fund – Expanding pathways for workforce readiness and lifelong success.
- Bowman-Shannon Cultural Arts Fund – Enriching our community through creativity and expression.
- The Art Group Fund – Investing in educators who inspire the next generation of artists.

These funds strengthen the foundation’s grantmaking power and allow the community to pool resources from multiple donors who share similar passions. Together, we can respond to emerging challenges and amplify the impact of every dollar.

WHY CONSIDER A FIELD-OF-INTEREST FUND?

If you want your giving to be both purposeful and adaptable, a field-of-interest fund is an excellent choice. It ensures your generosity continues to make a difference, even as times change, while focusing on the causes closest to your heart.

FIELD-OF-INTEREST FUNDS AT WORK

In September, Triplett Tech’s inaugural class of aviation students experienced their very first flights. Grants totalling $185,000 from the Career and Technical Education Fund helped support the launch of this new Aviation Program.

CONNECTING PEOPLE, SPARKING IDEAS

Philanthropy is more than funding, it's about bringing people together to share ideas, tackle challenges, and create solutions. One of the most powerful roles our community foundation plays is that of a convener, fostering collaboration and dialogue among those who care deeply about our region. This year, we hosted three events that exemplify this commitment:

SPRING HAPPY HOUR: PHILANTHROPY AND THE NEXT GENERATION

In early spring, we welcomed young and mid-career professionals for a conversation about the role of philanthropy in shaping our community's future. Attendees discussed how continued, invested contributions, whether of time, talent, or treasure, can create lasting change. It was an evening of networking, learning, and envisioning what's possible when emerging leaders commit to giving back. The event was made possible by Community Support Sponsor, First Bank.

NONPROFIT COFFEE AND CONVERSATIONS

Later in the season, leaders from more than 20 local nonprofits gathered for an informal morning of discussion and connection. Over coffee, participants shared the challenges they face and explored opportunities for collective solutions. The energy in the room was inspiring, proof that when organizations come together, they can amplify their impact and strengthen the entire nonprofit sector. This event has led to new partnerships and collaborative approaches.

FUND HOLDER AND DONOR BREAKFAST

In the fall, we brought together fund holders and donors for an in-depth conversation about how the foundation invests resources and the impact those investments are making in our community. This event provided a meaningful forum for donors to connect with one another, share ideas, and learn more about the collective power of their philanthropy. It was a celebration of transparency, trust, and the shared vision that drives our work.

WHY CONVENING MATTERS

These gatherings reflect the foundation's unique ability to connect people across sectors and generations. By creating spaces for dialogue, we help spark ideas, build partnerships, and strengthen the fabric of our community. We look forward to hosting more opportunities to bring people together, because collaboration is where transformation begins.

THE LEGACY SOCIETY

While the name may be new, the idea behind our Legacy Society has been part of our community foundation since the beginning. For many years, community-minded individuals have chosen to support the future by including the foundation in their estate plans.

Legacy, or planned, giving is simply a way to make a charitable gift that will be given later, often after a person's lifetime. This can be as straightforward as naming the foundation in a will or listing the foundation as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy or retirement account. These thoughtful gifts create a lasting impact. They ensure that the donor's care for the community continues to support local needs, opportunities, and organizations for generations to come.

WHY LEGACY GIVING MATTERS

Planned gifts provide enduring support for the causes that matter most to you. They strengthen the foundation's ability to respond to future needs and opportunities, ensuring that your generosity continues to shape a vibrant, thriving community. Legacy gifts may come after a donor's lifetime, but their impact begins today. Knowing these future commitments are in place gives us the confidence to invest in programs now, especially when our community faces urgent challenges.

JOINING THE LEGACY SOCIETY

If you have already included the foundation in your estate plans, we invite you to let us know so we can welcome you into the Legacy Society. If you are considering a planned gift, our team is here to help you explore options that align with your philanthropic goals.

Your legacy is more than a gift, it's a promise for the future of Shenandoah County. Together, we can make sure that promise endures.

REAL GENEROSITY. REAL STORIES.

This year, our grant recipients shared powerful stories and heartfelt reflections from the individuals and families they serve. These excerpts, taken directly from their grant reports, illustrate the real-world impact of your generosity: opportunities created, challenges overcome, and hope renewed. These voices belong to your community. We're honored to share them with you, and grateful for every person and organization who helps make these moments possible.

“This program helped her feel more confident in talking to and hanging out with the other girls her age. The 5k at the end helped her realize she has potential in things she didn't know she had in herself.”
- parent of Girls on the Run participant

“Good Food School Markets provide students the opportunity to select free food to take home, including fresh produce and pantry staples. This initiative ensures that vulnerable youth and their families have access to nourishing food throughout the week and over school holidays.” - Blue Ridge Area Food Bank

“It can sometimes be difficult to fully describe the continued need of a renewal project like our housing stability assistance program, where the real impact is often best seen in the quiet but powerful ways it changes daily life. Small supports often carried big weight. For example, helping to cover dental care allowed an individual to resolve ongoing pain and infection, treatment that meant fewer missed workdays and the ability to keep steady employment. Each intervention prevented a loss, either of housing, of essential utilities, or of basic dignity, that could have triggered a cycle of instability.” - Shenandoah Alliance for Shelter

“This has been so rewarding to see these participants come together sharing experiences knowing they are not alone and people in this class are battling the same disease. It truly has been a sense of community for them and their caregivers as they all help each other.”
- Shenandoah County Parks and Recreation, Rock Steady

The community foundation's grantmaking continued to make a meaningful impact in 2025, with $401,225 awarded to organizations working to serve, uplift, and improve Shenandoah County and beyond.

COMMUNITY GRANTS AT WORK

In December, community foundation staff had the opportunity to meet Wendy, a veteran, former local educator, and Woodstock resident. Blue Ridge Habitat for Humanity invited us to come visit as they completed some projects at Wendy's home. Habitat was able to layer funding from the Shenandoah Community Foundation and Woodstock Rotary with resources and volunteers from Team Rubicon to renovate the bathroom and install a stair chair and ramp. This didn't just increase accessibility for Wendy, but reduced the stress and concern for their whole family.
